

Overwhelming Thirst for Free Books Has Readers Turning to the Internet

Demand for free quality information and entertainment has the internet community buzzing about electronic books.

Paradise Publishers Inc. through one of its websites, www.Free-eBooks.net has registered over 10,000 subscribers in its first month of operation. The website allows visitors to instantly download electronic books (e-books) from its vast library at no charge, has been experiencing tremendous growth. Although registration is optional, the vast number of subscribers demonstrates the online community's escalating demand for e-books.

"Our books are free for anyone, plain and simple, no registration required. The fact that over ten thousand people voluntarily subscribed with us in our first month speaks volumes" explains Nicolas Gremion, President of Paradise Publishers Inc. "Information as a commodity will forever be in the highest demand and that's what we're supplying; free high quality information through our e-books. That alone will make us a powerhouse in the online world." added Mr. Gremion.

The site www.Free-eBooks.net generated over 2 million hits in the month of April. Visitor traffic numbers continue to escalate as Paradise Publishers Inc. is rapidly increasing the number of titles available for free download. The site's top search engine rankings coupled with the company's viral marketing strategies also play key roles in elevating the site amongst the most popular anywhere on the net.

"We're closing in on our short term goal of building the world's largest free e-book library" stated Mr. Gremion. He concluded "however, only when our long term goals of establishing ourselves as the #1 online source of free information will we be satisfied."

About Paradise Publishers Inc.
